My Dear Dr. Allen,

Due to the extra work which one encounters at the end of a semester and also because I was not sure of a means of transportation, I have neglected to answer your letter of Jan. 8th, written while you were in Oklahoma City.

I find I will be able to come to Manhattan, Monday, Jan 20th, and would indeed like to talk to you at that time. However I will not be able to leave Chapman until after 4:10, when our
