Dear Marie,

I think you got two letters this week didn't you? Will be expecting a visit from Mase pretty soon now but can't see how you expect me to like him if you like him nearly as well as you like me. And please be careful not to be too much in love with the Camp Grant boys because that sure would make me jealous.

I thought your reading, "The Service Flag" was good. Are you still taking both elocution and music? It seems to me you must be
