Marie, some day you will realize how unworthy I am,
then you will not care.

Will not you try to be my friend, but at the same time forget your love for me?

I do not want to forget my love for you because it helps me
so much in so many ways.

And you also help
Mother and Dad so much,
and you don't suspect
how much they really love you. In her last letter, Mother writes,

"Marie has just gone.
She is a ray of sunshine just now flashing in and out, with her
