My dear William

1 I hope your new home pleases you: my love to its dearest ornaments. Here we are much as usual.

2 With your letters I enclose an S P C K Report which contains the Society's rejoinder to Mr. Besant's accusation. Please please me by reading that rejoinder, which is almost at the beginning of the pamphlet: I heartily wish justice to triumph, but deem it fair to read both sides. The wrapper ready prepared will re-enclose it to me (please), as
