Spend all the time you can outdoors —
swimming, hiking,
bicycle riding, tennis
or anything else.
What wouldn't I give to be with you this summer, just when we have learned to understand each other and love, we are separated.
Marie you have my full unselfish love, and it urges me to help you to my limit.

You will never understand me, maybe, but my own sisters don't either.
In your last letter you hoped that my next letter
