

"WITH THE COLORS"

Dear Marie, This will be a continuation of last night's letter, as I did not have time to write all I wanted to.

I wonder what you must think after reading yesterday's letter. Anyway ~~was~~ I hope I can make you understand why I loved you more after you let me hug you in spite of what I wrote last night.

In my dealings with others I have always tried to be square and do the right thing. Wherever I have gone I have always been trusted,
