

Wed. August 1, 1917

Dear Marie,

Your four letters from J. B. are here ^{OK}. They sure stirred up some "happy feeling" alright! I wish I could have one every day. You would write that often if you knew how glad Dan to get them. We are getting the heavy work now and are pushed from rising call till bedtime. Today we were up at 5:15 and there ~~were~~ very few spare moments.
We drilled until 8:00 tonight.
We have regular infantry drill on top of the signal work. On the latter we have buzzer practice like you and I used to do and "wig-wag" signaling in the field.