

Tell your Mother to write some more like her first one.

Believe me I sure enjoyed it.

No more time tonight but will write again tomorrow.

I got your letter with the world coming to an end clipping this noon. I have no opinion to offer — it is the least of my troubles.