The Post at Oreg to be relieved by the Imperialists, large Communications to be made on the Front and Flanks of each Reg.
Those on Command at St Amand to receive their Bread here Henceforth a Major General and a Brigadier for the whole Army. The Report at 8 to morrow.

WB. Both Prince Eugene and our Army made a movement to Encamp together to cover the Siege, we put our left wing near Mortaigne and our right at Froimont & Esplechin where the left of Prince Eugene's Army begins, and runs with their right towards Pont a Bouvines.

4th

Webb			Pocock
Lord North	St Pierre	Rank	Guys
Evans	Venice	Craunston	Cradock

an Exact List to be given in of what Bread each nation will take each Regiment to give in a List what Facines and Gabions they have made, The Post at Rume to be relieved again a Maj.r Gen.l and Brigadier of each wing. We had advice this day That the WB Enemy was appearing with some bodys to attack Warneton upon which 30 Men of each Company of Grenadiers of the covering army and several Squadrons were detached in the Afternoon to their Assistance under Command of Lt. G. Wilkies.

5th

Meredyth			Armstrong
Rank	St Joseph		Stanhope
Lalo	Barcelona	May	Leathes

70 Tools to be sent for to the Artillery for the Detachment at Rume any body that brings orders to be sent from Guard to Guard to be taken up. Brigad.r Du Bruil, a Col. 2 Lieut Col.s 2 Maj.rs other Officers in Proportion and 1800 Foot from the right Wing commanded for a Cover to the Foragers 1000 are to march this Night to Aucky where the D.r M.r Gen.l Montargis

will