

The dwarf mule deer measured 28" high at shoulders.

Sept. 26, 1993 (Cont.)

8:02 A.M. Photo 9309261 of red madrona berries from Bee House.

Sept. 27, 1993

BALD BLUFF

sunrise

7:21:00 AM

Distance from Hummel Lake to Bee House via Port Stanley Road is 4 mi.

Sept. 28, 1993

BALD BLUFF

sunrise at notch 7:22:00 A.M. Color of sky in AM before sunrise is russet about 6:30 A.M. then to pink, both shortlived of approx 10" each (min). Last night both stars and moon single reflection in sound S + E of Bee House.

Sept. 29, 1993.

sunrise 7:22:15 AM at notch of Bald Bluff and ridge beyond.

At 12:30 P.M. five American robins feeding of red madrona berries front Bee House. They pulled vigorously for each berry taken.

Robins have been feeding daily on these berries for the last 2 weeks.

Sept. 30, 1993

7:23 sunrise. 5 American robins arrived at madrona tree in front Bee House 3 min. before sunrise. They had difficulty extracting the berries from their attachment. There is some sign of thinning of berries.

11:50 A.M. To Anacortes via ferry. Enroute: 7 willow Island, 80 glaucous-winged gulls generally distributed, approx 25 common murrelets, 6 rhinoceros auklets, and others. Good currents in Rosario Straits, Fog rest of way.

Continued to Chris' on Last Lake, Snohomish Co.