

Oct 1, 1993

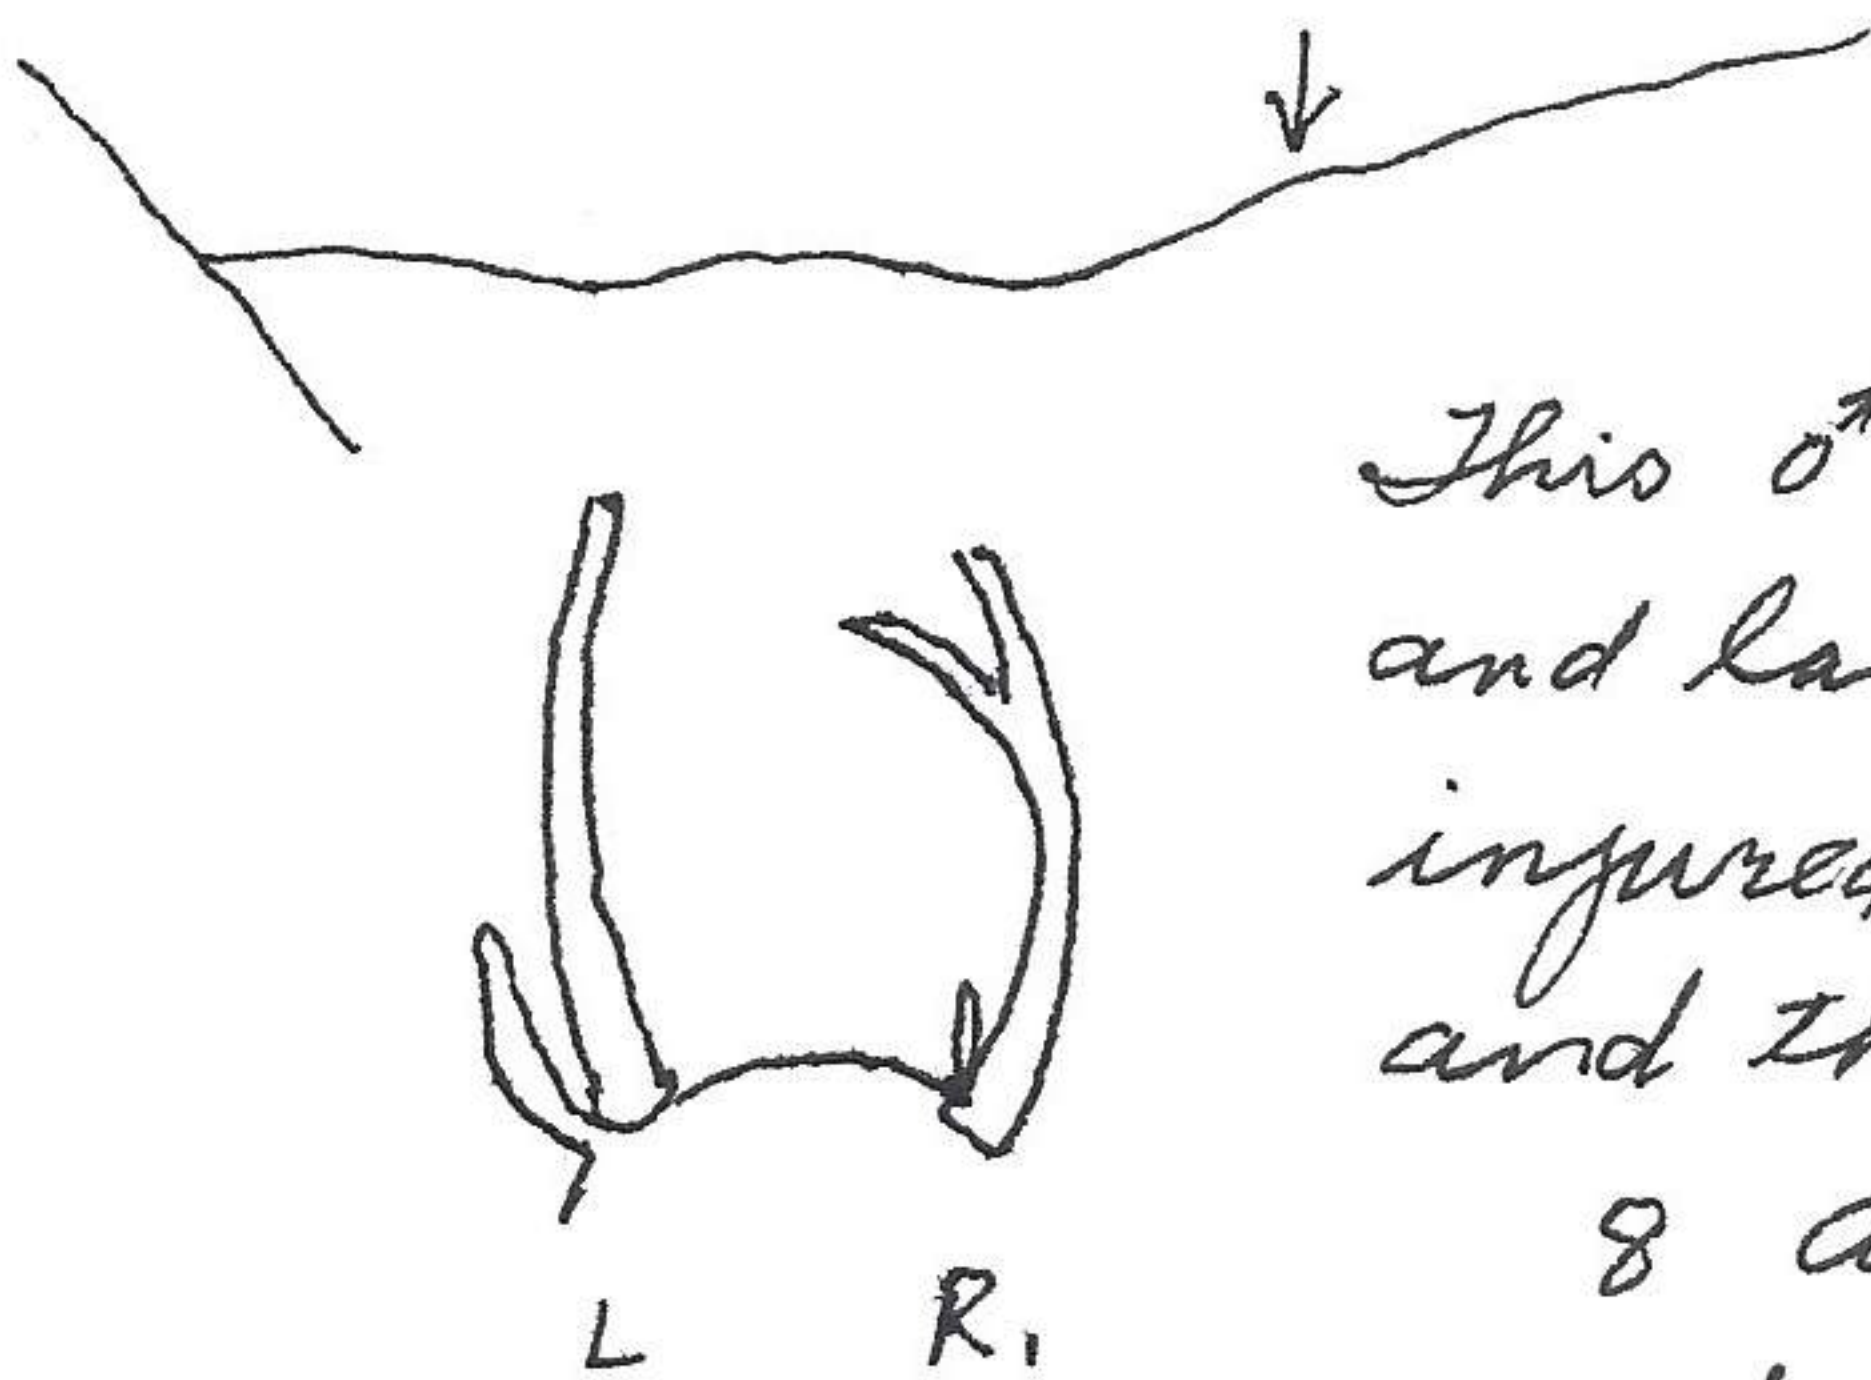

Returned to Lopez Island.

Oct. 6, 1993

6:55 A.M. bat returned to Bee House after night forage. It tried 3 times to light on entrance of resting area on edge of roof. Sky 90% clouds, and tinted with color.

Oct. 8, 1993

Sunrise 7:35 A.M.

11:20 A.M. Photos 931008-16 and 931008-17 of jade bear and agate pebbles.

This ♂ mule deer jumped off porch of Bee House and landed approx 9' below. It was definitely injured but walk up slope to Lower Parking Area and thence W to main road and beyond.

8 American Crows feeding on berries of madrona in front Bee House.

Oct 9, 1993

Buck mule deer showing first signs of interest in ♀ deer.

Oct. 11, 1993

Sunrise 7:43:00 and half way up first knoll S Thatcher Bay. young of year dwarf mule deer 17" high at shoulders. It is the last of the deer to change into winter pelage.

Observed one ad. ♀ mule deer chase another ad. ♀ mule deer for 150' at full speed which is unusual in the behaviorism of local deer.

First 2 pigeon guillemot of the winter season, 1 common loon and first one beginning winter season. 19 Bonaparte gulls also made their appearance today.

a new gull swam thru a group of candlefish, some within 1 foot away but the gull did not attempt to capture them.

An immature bald eagle flew S past Bee House and was the first immature of the season.

20% of berries of madrona have been harvested (in front Bee House)

Oct 14, 1993

To Bellingham via ferry to Anacortes. Left 8:10 A.M. and enroute observed 6 cormorants middle Rosario Straits