Emi reverend father in God, and dealte wth Emi about the invasion: And also gve letter to Eor the night before. Likewise were read Eor lrs to the Lord Sagitt Charles, Sadgitt and Sr Francis Knightbild, wherein shee saite, that shee hate given direction to the Catholiques on their side for a dispatte; Hiere bemgs pressed wth a trate of the Conspiratie, beranse Eor owni men had sworne it. Shee said that shee thought they made not transgressio of an oate, given to them.

L: of Scotts

Heere the weold hanse murmured tonormige the giviniges awaie of the Kingdome of England to the King of Spaine. In writinge to Mendoza shee advertised Emi there. Let not this be known for yse it shold ~~bee~~ it would bee in Francis the losse of my dower, in Scotland the breate wth my sonne, and in England my totall destruction.

Solicitor

The Sollicitor also remembred the Lords, that yse a forraine Prince had the Kingdome, what would become of their estates and dignities.

Lo: Trea

The Lord Treas said. Madam, the succession of this Crowne whosever hate it, cannot give it to a

it to a stranger Prince, it must goe by the lawes of this Realme: Were yo endmies in Scotland threatned to kill yo, the Queene said shee would revenge it, and so yo life was saved.

L: of Scotts.

At the ende of the Session, when the Lords were risinge, shee talked longe wth the Lord Treas rommed to Emi to give state, after to Mr Vice-Chamberlaine, and to Mr Secretaries, openinge Eor selfe unto them. Shee said to the Earle of Warwick that shee heard hee was an honble gentleman, desiringe Emi not to beleive all things that hee heard of her, desirenge Emi to recommend her to the Lord of Leicester, a saynge shee wisht Emi good success in all his affaires. To the Judges and Lawiers shee said, I pray God blesse me from yo, yo Lars hands over them that bee under yo. And to Mr Phillipps shee said then never did st and good agst me.

And so the Lords brake up their sittinge upon Saturday, at one of the Clock in the afternoone and adiourned their Commission to the Starrtchamber.
