The true Copies of the Letters sent between the Q: of Scotts and Babbington

Queene of Scotts to Babbington

My verie good frend, albeit longe since yoⁿ heard from me yet more then I have done from yoⁿ against my will, yet would I not yoⁿ should think it in my mind that I ever to bee unmyndfull of the effectuall affection yoⁿ have showed heretofore towards all that concerneth me. I have understood that upon the trayning of our intelligence, there were addressed unto yoⁿ betw from Shrewsbury and Rutland for me some parcells, I pray yoⁿ yfs and see some to yoᵉ hands, and bee yet in place, to deliver them to the bearer hereof, who will make them to bee safely conveyed unto me And I will pray God for your preservation June the 25th at Chartly

Yoᵉ assured frend
Maria Regina
