

Jan. 5, 1994

at high tide, 22 double-crested cormorants, 18 common mergansers independently fished off Lichen Point. They formed a small wake. They swam as units in different directions and adjusted their group formation by fly-paddling on water within the groups. The common mergansers were the most active and travelled the greater distances.

Photo 940105-15

The Bee boat at Shoal Bay marina.

Photo 940105-19

Sunset at Shoal Bay marina.

Jan 6, 1994

To Anacortes and return via ferry. many logs circulating in Rosario Straits at Bee House σ^1 mule deer of last year 28" high at shoulders.

Jan. 9, 1994

Out of 12 common mergansers, 2 were σ^1 . Front Bee House. A dead head log moved from Lichen Point to Dissected Point with rising tide. It remained attached at the latter point.

Jan 11, 1994

In front Bee House were 15 common goldeneye 3 of which were σ^1 . also 1 marbled murrelet and 8 common murrees.

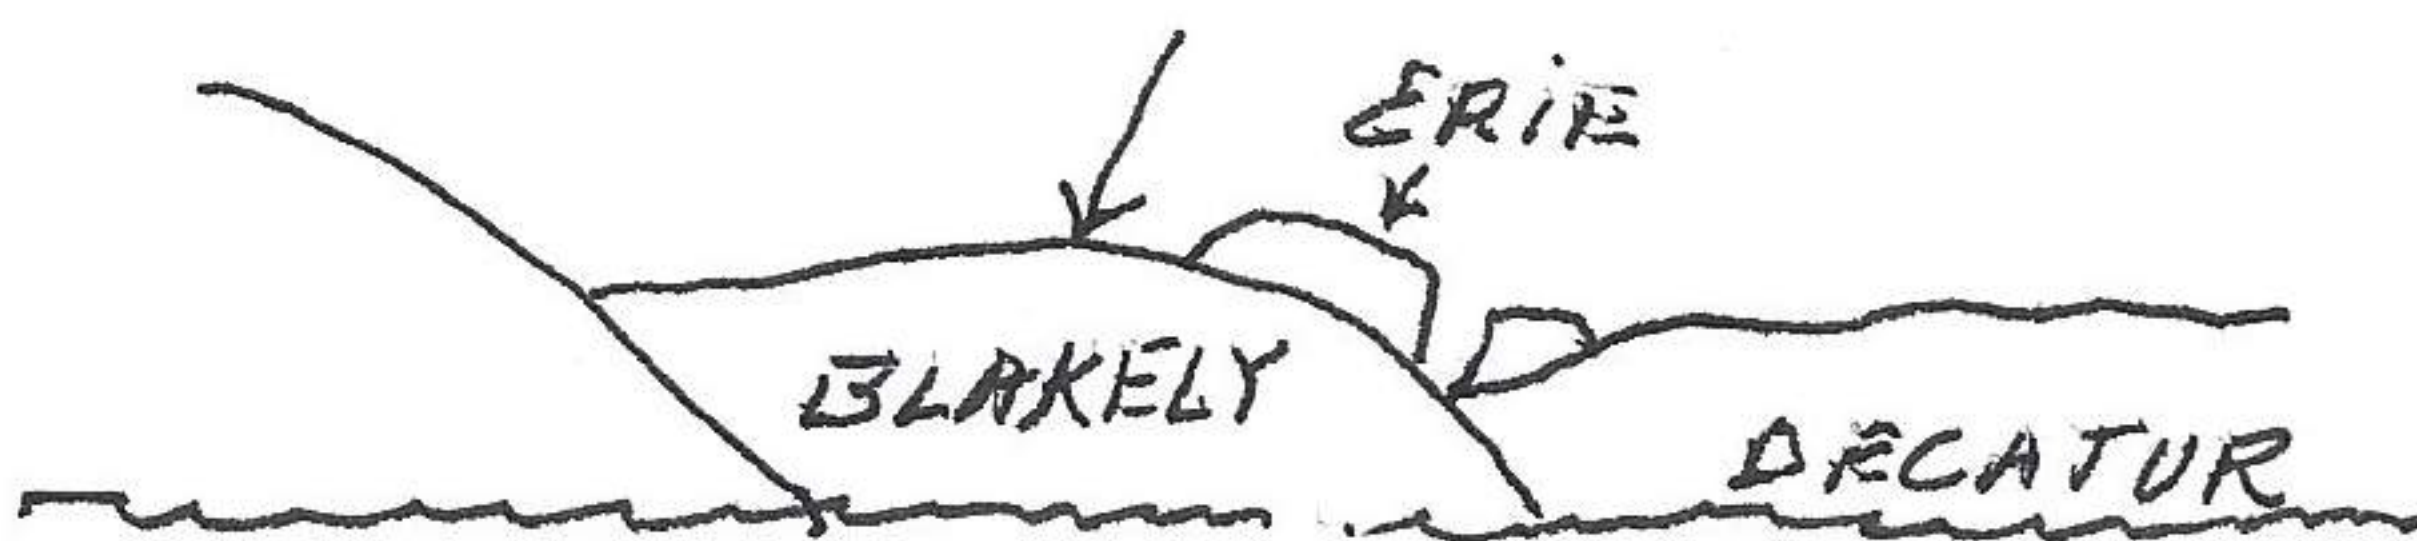

Jan 15, 1994

In Lopez Sound in front Bee House were 84 pelagic cormorant, 1 double-crested cormorant, 21 common mergansers and 1 mew gull.

This is a season when shoreline beaches erode down to a lesser angle.

Jan 20, 1994

Sunrise 8:01:40

0 ← Les Reef.

13 miles from Bee House to Causeway of Sperry Peninsula via island roads.