

march 24, 1994

Sunrise 6:29:30 base of trees
6:31:00 top of trees

To Lopez Village; no birds on Humphrey Lagoon; ^{42 new gulls} 8 glaucous-winged gulls Low Beach Swift Bay; 7♀ 9♂ shovellers, 4 gadwalls, Swift Lagoon; 8 Canada geese, 4 mallards Peckering Pond; no birds on Hummel Lake; junction Port Stanley & Cross roads, 14 Canada geese, 5 gadwalls;

5:30 16 harbor seal Leo Reef.

To boat to place notes under charts.

march 25, 1994

sunrise 6:29:05 AM (see A above)

Painted and put n box for violet-green swallows.

march 26, 1994

At sunrise violet-green swallows entering N & S nesting boxes. Turned submergence common goldeneye in front Bee House, 21 minutes, 20, 20, 26, 22, 31, 25. Deeper waters show longer submergence.

Greene wood-boer active.

In an area of 30' x 30' 8♀ and 2♂ common mergansers fished for 10 minutes or longer.

To Anacortes via ferry. 32 glaucous-winged gulls generally distributed on Spenser Island. Continued to Chris' at Lost Lake. Property n of Chris has been cleared of prime conifers for home building. Of 54 logs piled for hauling away average age 60 years, oldest 68 years. An example of diameter of logs: 40", 42", 43", 38", 42". There were 10 over 40" dia. The tops of trees averaged 1 foot in diameter.

This afternoon Chris & family and Annette & I to Houston Falls Episcopal Church Camp. Caretaker said Douglas squirrel piled walnuts out side cabins, then one at a time from the pile to place in storage nest inside cabin.

Returned to Lopez Island. At Anacortes ferry terminal 1 surf scoter. no birds observed to Lopez Island except 21 glaucous-winged gulls on piling at Lopez Island ferry Terminal.