Considerations in the ground=worke

I pray, or may yoe look for in this world.
Now for to ground substantially this enterprise, 1 and to bringe it to good sucesse, yoe must examine deepelie what forces aswell on foote as on horse yoe may raise, amongst yoe all, and what Captaines yoe shall appoint for them in every shire, in Case a Reiso generall 2 cannot bee had: Secondly of what Connes sorts and Havens yoe maie assure yoe selfes of, aswell in the Northwest as in the South parts, to retire sucours from the Dowe Countries 3 Spaine and France. Thirdlie what place yoe esteeme fittest, and of greatest advantage, to assemble the principall Companie of yoe forces at, and the same beinge assembled, whether, 4 or wth waie yoe maie Cause to marche. Fourthly what forward forces, aswell on horse as foote, yoe require, wth would bee composed uniforme to the proportion of yoe, for how longe pay and munition, and sorts the fittest for their landinge in this Realme, for the three forsaid ensuinge 5 Countries. Fifthlie what provision in Case yoe 6 want yoe would aske. Sixthly, by what meanes the sir gentlemen doe deliberate to proceede.

Seventhly,

7 Seventhlie and lastlie the manner of my goinge out of this Realme: upon wth points having taken amongst yoe, wee are the principall authors, and also as fewe in number as yoe can, and of the best resolution, my advise is; That yoe impart the same wth all diligence to Mendoza Ambassador leiger for the Kinge of Spaine in France, wee (besides the apparente Ed Cate of the Estate on this side) I may assure yoe will implor Emselfs most willinglie therein; I shall not fayle to write unto him of the matter wth all the recomendacions that I can, as I shall also to any other that shall bee needefull; but yoe must make choyse of the managing of this affaire wth the said Mendoza and other out of the Realme, of some faithfull and verie secret messenger, unto whom onlie yoe must comitt yoe selfes, to the end theiye bee kept more secrett, for yoe owne security; whom I recomend unto yoe above the rest.
If yoe Messenger bringe yoe back again sure promise and sufficient assurance of the succour wth yoe demande, then hereafter, but not sooner, for that it were in vaine,
