all diligence to advertise those Edwards wth shalbee appointed for my transportinge, to the end that they may immediatlie after bee at the place of my aboade before that my Keeper can gave notice of the journey of the said designe, or at the least before ye can fortifie himselfe wth in the house, or carrie me out of the same. It were necessarie to dispatche two or three of the said adventigers by diverse waies, to the end that yf one bee staied the other maie come thorunge. And at the same instant were it also needfull to assaie to cut off the Sheiff ordinarie waies: Gets vs the plott that I made best for this enterprize and the order whereby yo^u should convaie the same for our common benefitt, after stirringe on this side before yo^u are assured of forraine forces, yt were but to put yor selves in danger of followinge the miserable fortune of those as gave heretofore travelled in like occasions, and to take me out of this place not beinge before assured to bee mee in the midst of a good armie, or in some serie good serie good strength, where it may safelie staie on the assemblie of yor forces, and arrivall of the said forraine succours; it were sufficient cause given to the Queene mistrustinge me again, to mislike me for ever in sute could forte of wth I should never escape (if God did lse me not worse) and to pursue wth all extremitie those wth God assisted me, w^th would growe me more then all the mischeife that might befall my selfe; and therefore must I verie yet once again admonishe yo^u be earnestlie ad I can, to looke and take heede most carefullie and diligentlie to compasse and assure so well all that shalbee necessarie for the effectuatinge of the said enterprise, ad wth the grace of God yo^u may bringe the same to an happie end, remittinge to the judgem^t of our principall freinds on this side, wth whom yo^u have to deale herein, to ordaine or conclude upon this event, wth shall serve yo^u onlie for an overture and exposition ad yo^u shall amongs yo^u finde best. And to yo selfe in particular, I referre to assure the gentlemen above mentioned, of all that shalbee requisite on my part, for the entire
