but one for that purpose of these three meanes

1 meanes to bee looked for followinge: The first that at one certaine day appointed in my walkinge abroad on horseback mite Meeting between this and Stafford, where ordinarilie yⁿ knowe there fewe people passe a 50 or 60 well horsed and armed may come to take me there, as they maie easlie, my keeper havinge wth him ordinarily but 18 or 20 horsemen onlie wth dogges.
2 The second meanes is to come at Midnight or soone after to set fire on the Barnes and stables, wth yⁿ knowe are neere the howse, and weilest the Guardian his servants shall run forte to the fire, yⁿ Companie havinge before ordered one a marke, whereby they may know one another under night, might surprise the howse, where I hope wth the fewe servants I have about me, I were able to give yⁿ correspondence. And the third meanes is, some that bringe Carte either ordinarilie comminge darlie in the morninge, the third Carte might bee so prepared, and wth sute Carte leaders, that bringe mist in the middle of the greate gate
