What is edition of yor propositions together w^th yor final determinations, my next letter shall discover, in the meane tyme resting infinitely bound to yor Eigenes for the greate Confidence it pleased yo^u to repose upon me, wth to deserve wth all faithfull service I vowe before the face of our Lord Jesus wpon I beseeche to graunt yor Matie a longe and prosperous raigne, and to happie success in these our vertuous enterprises

London the 3^d of August 1586

Anthony Babbington

This is the true Copye of the last lre written to the Queene of Scotts.

The manner of the execution of Mary Stuart Queene of Scotts on the 8th of February 1586:
in the greate Hall at Fotheringhay Castle

To the Right hono^ble Sr William Cecill Lord high Treasuror of England

It may please yor good Lopp to be advertised that according as yor Lopp gave me in Comission, I have sett downe in writinge every the tyme, order, and manner of the execution of Mary Stuart late Queene of Scotts the 8th of February, together wth a relation of all suche actions done in the yeare of our Lord 1586 in the greate Hall in the Castle of Fotheringhay, wth all speeches spoken and done by the said Queene, or anie other circumstances and proceedings touchinge the same, from and after the delivery of the said Sr Amyas Paulet Queene to Thomas Andrewes esquire Eight Sheriffe for her Maties Comtie of Northampton to the end of the said execution in all and as true manner as followeth