Princelie dignities, so shall the kingie of kings take pleasure in ye spiritnall beautie, make all things as dust and clay, doinge that yu may bee formed of God, not gaininge ye owne righteousnes wch is defyled and unclane but the righteousnes of God by faith in Jesus Christ upon all and in all that believe, that yu may know Him whom to know is life everlastinge, the vertue of His resurrection to rayse yu up at the day to lyfe eternall: the fellowshipp of His passion that yes yu suffer wth Him yu may bee glorified wthe Him yu may bee glorified wthe Him and the conformitie of His death, that by the ytakinge and communion therof yu may dye in sinne and live againe to righteousnes, to the end that in that respect of your former course yu bee not indged of the Lord, repent yu truelie of ye former sinnes and wickednes, mistifie the Justice nowe to bee exercised, and mistifie Her Maties faithfullnes towards yu at all tymes, gave a libelie faithe in Christ our Lord and Savioure, and so shall yu bee rightlie ppared ppared unto death, yes ye offendes Madam word as many, as the sandes upon the Sea shoare, and as blondie redd as the starlet yet the Ayshpe of the Lorde the grave and merrie of Jesus Christ shall purge and make them as white as snowe, and shall cast them into the bottome of the Sea and remember them noe more: The especiall meanes to attaine forgivenes of sinnes, is neither in man nor by man, but by faithe onlie in Jesus Christ crucified, by faithe in whom noe bringe mistified gave peace 2 in god and all eternitie. Secondlie consider ye bessedes ye grave, your present condition of death and mortalitie, your godinge from earth to bee noe more found; ye departured into a land where all things are forgotten, ye entrie into a house of clay, where wormes shalbee ye sisters, and corruption and rottenes ye fatyer as Job speakethe. Again where the trod fallethe there must it lye together it bee towards the Sonne of lyfe or towards the North of death and dolefulnes: nowe is the tyme of ye risinge to God, or ye fall to utter darkenes, where shalbee weepinge
