and the dead wth dye in the Lord: For the Lord shall yu dye, yt in the true faith yu desire to bee dissolved, and to bee wth Christ, ye onlie sacrificed for ye sinnes, and a full ransome for ye redemprow. Ah Madam trust not in the devises of men, wth the word of God doth not warrant, wth word is the true touchstone, and the cleere lanthorne to lead and guide ye feete into the way of peace.
Jesus Christ yesterday and to day and the same for ever, in him are all the promises of God for man accomplished, to him give all the scriptures witnes, that through faith in his blood, wee and all Gods Elect shall receive remission of sinnes, on him all the saints called in the day of their trouble, and have bin heard and delivered, in him have they all trusted and never were confounded.
All other Christians Madam are broakin and pan holds not water, it moand the water of everlasting life by Christ our Lord. The name of the Lord is a strong tower wherunto the rigtcous fly, and bee saved. Therefore good Madam that yu may bee glorifie god in ye dayes, as you maie ephtlie ephtlie bee glorified of him in everlastinge lyfe. Mord it behoves ye grace humblie in the tender mercies of Jesus Christ, that yu will joyne wth us in prayer to the throne of his grace, that wee may receive comfort in yu and yu in him, that God almightie may turne his loovinge countenance towards yu and graunt yu his peace Amen.

L: of Scotts — In the attornige of this exportation the said Queene: 3: or: 4: tymes interrupted him, saynige Mr Deane Mr Deane trouble not ye selfe nor mee it am settled and resolved in the ancient Catholique Romaine faith, and minde to spend my blood in defence of it

Deane — Then the Deane said Madam lay aside those putrean dreggs of superstition wth yu have about yu, and repent yu of ye sinnes and settle yu onlie on Jesus Christ by him to bee saved,

L: of Scotts — Then she answered again and again, and that wth great earnestnes Good Mr Deane trouble ye selfe not more about this matter for it was borne in this Religion, it have
