Lr of Scotts — Her prayer that God would avert his wrath from this Island, and that God would forgive her forgiveness of her sinnes. Then with other prayers she made in English saying that God forgave her enemies with all her part that had longe sought her blood and desired god to convert them to the truth. At the end of her prayer she desired all the Company of Heaven to make intercession for her, and so kissinge the Crucifix and crossinge herselfe she said those words even as they armes o Jesus dro spread yeere upon the crosse, so receive me into thy armes of thy mercie and forgive me all my sinnes.

Executioners — Her prayer beinge ended the two Executioners kneelinge on their knees desired her grace to forgive them, wee answered

Lr of Scotts — I forgive you with all my heart, for now I hope you shall make an end of all my troubles.

Then they, with their two women helpinge her up, beginge to disroabe her of her apparell she lettinge fall her Crucifix, one of her Executioners tooke from her neck the Agnus dei, wch she wch she layinge gould on, gave to one of her women, and tould him that he should bee answered money for it. Then she suffered her two women to disroabe her of her rayment and pomander beads and all other her apparell most willinglie and with a joy, rather then with sorrowe goinge to make preadie herselfe, puttinge on a paire of sleeves wch her owne hands, wch they had pulled off, and that with some haste as thinke she longed to bee gon. All the tyme they were puttinge off her apparell she never ceased her ejaculations, but with smylinge cheere uttered these words That she never had sine Grooms to make her preadie before (meaninge the two Executioners) and that she never put off her cloathes before singe a Company. Then she beinge stript of all her cloathes except her petticote and kirtle, her two women began to cry, and lament. Then she turned to them and imbraced them and said these words in French, ne crye poins pour moye say promise pur vous and so crossinge and kissinge them both she tould them that they had more ease to rejoyce