and on the 16th of June, for the accomplishment of the said Conference, and by the Lieutenant Justice of Raleigh did wrote Brooke to write to Arbella to write to the 3. foresaid Prince to procure them to advance her title, and that they, after that shee had obtained the Crowne should performe three things, vizt to establish a firme peace betwixt England and Spaine, secondly to tollerate the Popish Religion with impunitie, And thirdly to bee ruled by them there in the entertaining of marriage by their assent, and for the better effecting of those Treasons, Cobham upon the 17th of June by the Justice aforesaid Raleigh did write Lett to Count Aremberge, and delivered the said Lett to one Math: de Laurency who delivered upon to the Count for the obtaining of 600000. Crowns, which money by other Lett, Aremberge did promise to performe payment of and those Lett Cobham did receive on the 18th of June. Then did Cobham promise Raleigh that when hee should have received that money, hee would give 1000. Crowns to him to which morow hee did consent, And afterward Cobham offered Brooke that when hee should have received that money, hee would give 10000. Crowns thereof to him, to the which morow Brooke did assent/

To the

To the Indictment the Prisoner pleaded not guilty/ Then was the Jury called and Sworne, whose names were as here followeth/.

Knights	Ralph Commisby	Hen: Goodyer.	Tho: Higate
	Tho: Fowler	Geo: Wood	Ro: Kempton
	Edw: Pearce	Tho: Walker	John Chawkie
	Willm Rowe	Tho: Whitby	Robte Bromly gent.

To the Jury were called to the booke, Sr Walter Raleigh was asked whether hee would challenge any of them before they were sworne, whereto hee answered/.

I know none of them they are Christians and honest men I trust I cause none of them all/. Raw:

You your of the Kings learned Counsell follow the same course as you did the other day/ Suff.

All my Lord I pray you that I may answer the points particularly as they shalbe delivered because of the weakness of my memorie and sickness/. Raw:

After the Kings Counsell were delivered the Evidence Sr Walter, you may answer part wholly to what you will/. Lo: chiefe Justice/

Then began the Kings Serieant Heale/.

You have heard

Cf.