S. Robt Cecill. I now spake the words/.

Attor: Let mr. Serjeant Phillippes say whether he heard him speake the words or no?/

S. Robt Cecill. I will speake on trust on you mr. Attorney/ and by God I now speake it/.

Lo: Chiefe Justice/. But wherefore should this booke bee burned?

Serjeant Phillipps. I burned it not/.

You acquainted yo. friend with it whom he was discontented, if it had beene before the Queene's death, it had beene a lesser matter but gave it him openly when he came from the Kingt which was the time of his discontentment/.

Raw: Here is a booke supposed to bee treasonable, I now read it considered it, urged it, nor delivered it/.

Attor: Why this is running/.

Raw: Every thing that makes for mee it is running, and only thing that makes against mee is probable/.

Attor: The Lord Cobham saith that Kemish came to him with a Tre forme and did wish him not to bee dismayd for one saittness could not hurt him/.

Raw: This court mean hath beene in Prison this 18. weeke, hee was offered the Park to make him confesse, I was sent and sure message message by him, I only writt to my Lord Cobham to tell him what I had done with the Attorney, having all his at that time the great Pearle and Diamond/.

Doe beleive mee both mee more than this Kemish was now on the Park the King gave charge that mee Pigeon should bee shed/. Ev: Hen: Howard/.

Wee protest there was mee sure matter to our knowledge/. Comiss:

Was not the Park-keep shut for and hee threatned with it/. Raw:

When mr. Waller came to examine Kemish, hee told him hee deserved the Park but hee was now threatned with it/. S. Tom Wade.

If wee were more than wee know/. Comiss/.

Read Cobhams Examination/. Attor:

Hee saith that Kemish brought him a Tre from Rawleigh, and that part which was concerning the Lords of the Counsell was rent out/ The Tre contained that hee was acquitted and had cleared him of all, and that the Lord Hens Howard said that because hee was discontented hee was fitt to bee in the Arrow, And further that Kemish said unto him from Rawleigh that hee should bee of good Comfort for one saittness could Cobham Examd/.

not condemne