the distraycte of my Countrymen, and for my freeing of my selfe from your bloud, which else would cry for vengeance against mee / I protest upon my Salva==tion, I now practised with Spaine by ye Gouernement / God so comfort mee in this my affliction as you are a true subiect for aught I know / And therefore that I may with the Prophet David say, purus sum a sanguine huius, So God haue mercy on my soule as I know mee treason by you /

Raw: Now I wonder how many hooded this man hath that drawes one in this tre, & another in that / Attor: Here was mutt, adde / mr. Attorney alleadged, that this last tre was willingly and voluntarily drawn from the Lord Cobham, and that the first was simply the truth, And least it should seem doubtfull that the first tre was drawne from my Lord Cobham by promise of mercie or hope of fauour, the Lord Chiefe Justice willed that the Iurie might therein be satisfied whereupon the Rule of Deter==mina delivered that the same was vnsworne voluntarie and not extorted from the Lord Cobham upon any hope or promise of pardon / And that the Iury went together and stayed not above a quarter of an houre but came rap their verdict, and found him guilty /

Then Seriant Heale demanded Iudgment against the prisoner. Sr. Walter Raleigh was asked what hee could say why hee should not have Iudgment /

Heale /

My Lords the Iury have found mee guilty, they must doe as they are directed, I can say nothing why Iudgment should not passe against mee, yet so whereas Cobham hath accused mee, Remember Sir Edward that I was neuer guilty of any treason hee knew, I desire the King should know what wrong I have bidde him I came hither /

Raw:

You have had no wrong Sr. Walter / you of the Attorney I desire the Lords to remember 3. things to the King, I was ordered to bee a great friend with Spaine, I neu knew my Lord Cobham went to go thither, I will ask no more in at ye Iuries hands if hee affirme it / Secondly, I neu knew of the practise with Arbella, Thirdly I neu knew of my Lord Cobhams practise
