his wives daughter must bee the Shipwiths Concubines & prostrate themselves unto him, to that end Allures his Fifteen Girle Coming but ten 13 yeares old wth Threates Entreaties fiare promises, And before his face Dauced this Shipwith to the wch her. But shee ten being too young & not Capable of man, hee at Length wth standing Enabled him by the Application of An Oyle to satiffie his Lust on her, And wch ere was yet in Attron Shee spake unto him thus

To it Shipwith worke Lustelie, & beget A Boye Swearing A great Oath hee shall Enioy all my Estate for I had rather have A Child of thy begetting then of any other mans. O most unnatural resolution for wee see as Every man desires his Estate should remaine in his owne Familie, this unnatural man contrariolie desires by these Detestable meanes to bee the first man to Conferch his to the Bastard of A Whore and base Fellowe. Shee did Actu-allij forsake his Ladie to lye wth him in his bedd, wee thor to Any ill purpose yet may imagine his Singular and unbounded Lust to this Shipwith is also most remarkable for wee see soul see could dismembr his Estate hee conferred that upon him from his Sonne: hee unnatted him to spend of his Purse 500. p Annu And at one time gave him 1000. in money.

Now Some wee to other his Land & virtue Wrant. hee kept A dissolute woman in his house hee Cohabited in time wth her Kalls A yeare together, yea hee not only ranse all his Familie, hee por-tate & but allso p tate in his wife wife for at one time hee made 4 of his servants one after the other to lye wth her in his Sonne. And hee chiefe must make the first man: May it please

May it please yor Grace hauing thus Curserly run over the Vilanies of his Life thought they bee not Crymes worthie Stands Indicted As not by the Lawes of this Land punishable by Death yet are they soe great And for Reasons sy yor Loppe may thereby Easily bee Induced to believe, That That man who dare Commit them will not stand to Committ the Crimes whereth the Lr Stands Charged it being his Ordinarie practise to heape Sin upon Sin the Latter allwayes transcending the former.

Now my Lds I come to the Crimes wherof the Prisoner stands indicted wch are nombr 2 By 3 Generall Indictments The one of A-Bye 3 Generall Indictments The one of A-Rape for the Fayling of his ground wife

The other 2 of Sodomie or Buggerie. As Concerning the first it is A Sinne prohibited by Almightie God, wth that penitij that death is the Punishm^t fit by the ould Lawe. And yet not only Threatned the offender hereon wth Punishm^t But also the whole Country wherein it was Committed. witnes the Examples in the Scripture Judges the 19th & 20th Chap: where wee read that A Leuite was soe bewrayed by the Tribe of Beniam. untill shee was Killed, her husband devided her into 12 parts And sent her throughout all the Coste of Israell And A^ll that saw her said that there was no sure Triuke done or seene since the Children of Israel came up from the Land of Egipt unto this day Then all the People Armed themselves Against the Tribe of Beniamin And sent unto them to delive out unto them the wicked men who did Comit this deede That they might put them to death. But the refusing to doe it, Cayment in warlike manner arose them And killed almost all the Tribe of Beniamin

Now my Lds this Abomination of this offendr Crime unto yor for longanie Least it beeing left unpunished it should draw downe the wrath of God upon the whole Kingdome.
