persons.

Thirdly the matter being first informed to his Ma.ty his wisdome was great to give directions to finde it out, his bewarance was greate, how grave speciall charge that no Innocent should bee touched, nor not so much as with an aspersion, for Judas was kept of repentance being like Christ coate, that admitts no seame, there was two great persons that were especially in question touching this matter, the one the daughter of a great Earle the Lo: Ordr, whome all the world & thinke doe commiserate at this day, for his sorrow of whome I will say for his comfort as Nature speakes of the pomgranate that there is none so good but may have one rotten or scright kirnell; this Information of his Ma.ty was bewarate, nisfunre as when hee tould ye Earle of Comfort of it, hee did not call it an Information but a Crime, this was his Ma.ty bewarance and now his fortitude and constance continueth to indirate not Dolore proprio sed amore Justitiae, In this his Justice is admyrable above all other things, It is no wonder that

Yet

yet thunder out lawes against treason which tend to the ffortaion of themselves: now was the death of a private gent resented in tanto Calorem motu Regni, the Realme hath beene made a barraton and in effect nothing done but this, and yet no discourse can flout or say, that any thing is done so much: But I will continue with Salomon, Sit gloria Dei celari rem, gloria vero strutari rem, though this matter hath continued a great noble man who hath beene unto his Ma.ty as the signet of his right hand, yet hath hee putt him off from him as a man supported, the third part of my speech is a narrative or Narraton of the point of charge that Weston who had the Machiavell parte of this possening, and being indicted of this possening by a substantiall Grand Jury of selected Citizens of the number of 19: It was found Bill vera, and Weston standing mute, the business was grave ly and wisely deferred untill another day, at which time it pleased God to rayse out ye Drum Dinell, and hee did freely confesse and pleade to the Indictment who being tryed by a Jury of 14. sufficient jurors, and found guilty, was the next day in state of arraignment which wrought in him this effect, that being

University of Kansas
Kenneth Spencer Research Library
MS D153