to make disraw, of the truth, the statute of the 1. and 2. of R: 2. that he that doth raise false news between the King and the Nobles, shalbe imprisoned for yeare space of a yeare, I think fitt that mr Lundens imprisonment should bee for a yeare, and afterwards untill he shall produce his Author. As for Sr.
John Hollis his fault of questioning and Tumbling, it is very great, the same being made after a verdict, for is a mere contett Treason the 20th day of May, and sell his lands the 5th day and after is indicted that he did contett the Treason the first day which was before the sale, and after is found guiltie of this indictment, he that is to loose the land cannot doune this verdict and say the Treason was committed the 20th day though it cannot hinder for all that he hath of saying is that he that is to bee endeme by a verdict shall not speake cross matter to a verdict (as the bookes of E: 3. and E: 1: are and 11. Hen. 4. 53. Estofhell 137.) what shalbe done to him that having no cause in a matter capitall whereon he had nothing to doe could intermeddle for as the law saith Cuiq: est admittere rei ad se non pertinenti, Sr. John said that it hath been a custome to aske questions at those times, and that he did did usually goe to overview, for his own part he said that on shire he was a Grecoler and had read those verses of Ovid et Lupus et Cervus sistant moriunt ibus et quorumq; minor natu= =litate fero est, he did now like it, and therefore he said he did marvelle much at the use of Sr. John Sr. John Ashford here at the barr and saith that if ani thing were determined against him, he did humbly submitt himselfe thereto, by reason barne so determining, he meant (I think) as if we did give our Verdicts against him by conspire conspiracie, for my own part I talked not none deer, nor I think did ani of us one speake with other before were came together there, paddoutwe he thinke, (as some have thought) that all the arri= ages of this business is but a conspiracy against the Earle of Somerset, he saith he hath been since the ffirst his death but as a fish out of the water I know not what he meaneth by a fish out of the water, I have heard that Corinus in ovido tanqm piscis in arido, a Clerke in the Ocean is like a fish out of the water, he is a Justice of peace a Com= missioner of Oyer and Terminer, a man of foure lands 1500. to p ann at the least, this money is enough to bee a prize Tumbles and yett Sr. John Hollis is like a fish out
