Judeo, solius dei oram relinquit. Saith Gregorie, this great Justice must have power and prudence to assist her, some Lawes want power, some wisdome, but this cause especially required fortitude humane est humanis rationibus inge= nitore, It is a humane worke to bowsche humane miseries, if a great tree bee falling downe, shall a man goe to hould it up, hee may have a squatt or a bruise but cannot support it; A great tree here hath hurtt it selfe and is readie to fall by the great blast of Justice, and Dr. John Hollis running to hold it upright, hee shalbe sure to take hurt himselfe, but hee will non bee able to sett himselfe stedfast in his place, God saith to Israell behold I will doe a great worke of Justice in your dayes, that all Israell shall speake of it in the dayes to come, hee hath spoken a sinne to do in the heart of his Matie this great business hath beginne in fore= =mistrum, hath continued in witchcraft and ended in murder, whoremongers and Adulterers God will judge saith the Apostle as for the bloudthirsty man into his Soule shall not my Soule come saith the Ayrshot, left this great great tree stand or fall to himselfe, they that have contemned Gods Judgments have at the length most basely paiedd them, as it was said of Dionisius the tyrant, that he was a great Sprosha= ner of God and of his Temple, but at the last was so fearfull of thunder, that at the least terrort he would runne under the bedd, and if he walked abroad he would have a Shield of brass carried on him to free himselfe from danger that might fall from heaven to destroy him and the punishment of murder is commanded in the 35. of Numb 33. where it is said, that blood defileth the land, and the land cannot bee cleansed of the blood that is shedd in it; things that are common are not alwayes to bee accustomed into a frequentsy, nia est unii fallere nemen sutra frequentsy lit est sit nia crimen habet, this course of questioning men condemned, but doth tend to the blemishing and obstructing of Justice and therefore though it bee not usuall yet it is utterly to bee condemned.

How agreeth in concurre with the rest!
