To the Right Honoble Richard Lord Weston Lord high Trer of England Sr Francis Cottington Kt and Baronett Chauncellor and onder Trer of his Maties Court of Exchequer Sr John Walter knight Lord Chiefe Baron of the same Court and the rest of the Barons there.

Humblie complayninge showeth unto your good Lordshipp your Lordshipp Orator Richard Cornwall Gentleman of London Marchant Weareth your Lordshipp Orator is an Englishman borne in the Citie of London within the Realme of England at London, and was possest in the partes beyond the Seaes of one Chest of black silke Grogramb, contayninge ten poorde wortes 400li, and of 26 balles of Turkey Grogramb wortes 2900li and of 3 balles of Mogaindes wortes 300li and 3 balles of Raples Organsine silke wortes 900li and 5 balles of raw silke wortes 1250li and of 6 balles of Gamblitts wortes 950li and of 40 sarkes of galls wortes 360li as of ye owne goods and Gattells, and be bringe therewith possest, and the same goods bringe notorie for the use