loyallie admitted to bee done as aforesaid And for that by the lawes and customes of this Realme ye Orators goods ought not to bee seized and detayned from him w^th^out cause, And for that there hath bee either vnto nor Informacon exhibited into this Court, that they were seized, neither were they seized by and warrant or proxy, out of any of ye Maties Courts, nor is there any Record, or other matter by wch it appeareth that the same goods ought to bee seized or detayned, and yet vnder pretence of such entrie due to ye Matie they are detayned aga^t^ the lawe and aga^t^ equitie And for the same goods, by keepinge of them, are mutch impayred, and made worse by detaynige of them, and millions every day the worse therby, and ye Orator hath not other meanes to remedy ye goods but by a Replevyn, but that whatsoever other course he shall take concerninge the same, he shall not bee able to attaine to the possession of them but at the will and pleasure of the said Jsbnb that seized them, and it is agreeable to equitie and good conscience, that the said goods shuld be delivered to ye Orator, or that he shuld peticion sufficiently for recovery of them as they lawe allowe - May it please ye Lords to graunt vnto ye Orator ye Maties most gracious writt of Subpe^na^ vnder the Seale of this Court to them the said Abraham Dawes Richard Carmarthen Joan Holloway and Ryan Rogers to bee directed Commanding them and every of them at a certaine day and vnder a certaine payne therein to bee limitted personally to bee and appeare before ye Honors in ye Maties Court of Exchequer Chamber at Westminster, then and there sufficiently to answere all and everie the aforesaid premisses vpon their oathes And also for that it is pretended that the same goods are detayned for some antient pretended to bee due to ye Matie, and that the same were seized to ye Maties vse That ye Lords would bee pleased to give order that ye Maties Attorney generall may likewise answere the premisses and make shew vnto why the same goods were seized
