first yeare of the raigne of our late soveraigne Lord Kinge James of blessed memorie the Comons in that Parliament then assembled did give and graunt unto his said late Ma^tie during his natrall life one subsidie called pomage, that is to say of all sure goods and marchandizes bee are mentioned in the Bill of everie Marchant denizen or Allien whatsoever, carried or to bee carried out of this Realme, or brought or to bee brought into the same by waie of marchandize of the value of everie twentie shillings of the same goods and marchandizes twelve pence, and so after that rate as by the said act of Parliament amongst other things relaton being there= unto had more plainlie maie appeare.
And they further say that afterwards his said late Ma^tie by his patents under the greate seale of England, bearinge date at Westminster the 28^th daie of Julie in the sixte yeare of his Highness raigne of England directed to the then Lt Lynn^ble Robert Earle of Salisburie then Lord High Treasurer of England, did for himselfe his heires and successors appoint ordaine and commande that from and after the 29^the daie of September then next ensueinge the date thereof, there should bee taken, levied, and retrieved by waie of imposition then newlie set, over and besides Customes subsidies and other duties formerlie due and payable unto his said late Ma^tie upon all marchandizes of whatsoever like nature or qualitie, w^ch from and after the said 29^the day of September should either bee brought from aine pt beyond the Seas, into this Realme of England dominion of Wales and Port or towne of Warwick or into any of them, or w^ch should bee transported or carried forth of this Realme of England dominion of Wales and towne of Warwick or out of any of them to any forraine pt by any psons or psone whatsoever, aswell his said late Ma^tie natrall borne subjects denizens and strangers equallie soe mutc for the said newe imposition as was formerlie answered