for them and were expressed in the said Stedule and thereby appointed to be freed from the payment of the said new Imposition. And at that time and longe before Chamblets unwatered were estemed to be worth iij^s the yard and Chamblett of silke iiij^s the yard and Chamblett of silke tintelled wth gould and silver vj^s viij^d the yard and at those rates were then and before rated in the booke of rates for payment of customes and subsidie and accordinge to these rates the Customes and subsidie were then and before used to be payd for them, and were not expressed in the Stedule.
And at that time and longe before Chamblets watered were estemed to be worth iij^s vj^d the yard and at that rate were then and before rated in the booke of rates for payment of customes and subsidie, and accordinge to that rate the customes and subsidie were then and before used to be payd for them and were not expressed in the said Stedule
And at that time and longe before

Carlos were estemed to be worth xxxiij^s iiij^d the Emerod waiget contaynige Cxij pounds and at that rate were then
and before rated in the booke of rates
for payment of customes and subsidie, and accordinge to that rate the customes and subsidie were then and before used to be payd for them, and are expressed in the said Stedule, and there by appointed to pay for the said new Imposition after the rate of xx^s the Emerode waiget contaynige one Emerod and 12 pounds as by the said lres patents Stedule and booke of rates, weareto these desires for more certentie referre themselves, may appeare. And for Moeires these defendts say they are not by the speciall name mentioned in the said Stedule, but then and before payd customes and subsidies accordinge to the rate of Turkey grogrames And the defendts said that in the life time of the said late Matie after the said 29th day of September in the said lres patents mentioned diverse Marrcants of London