The 4th Day of May 1629 according to the order of Richard Chambers sent to the Customers to demand the right and apprentice of my goods and demanded the same of Mr Davis and Mr Warmastyn by certen Officers but they answered that they were out of their possession and they had nothing to do wth them, and this was all I could get of them at that time In witness hereof

Mr Wiggott
Mr Cornish
Mr Bartlett
Robt Hollipland

Anno xpi^ni dio Maij 1629

London — Memorand Richard Chambers of London Merchant late latelie exhibited an English Bill into this Court against Abraham Davis Esquire Richard Warmastyn Esquire Hugh Holloway Esquire and Bryan Rogers gentleman defendts touchinge certaine goods of greate value wch were seized by them or some of them as officers and servants of Ye Maties Customes and still detayned in Ye Maties storehouse of London for some duties pretended to be due to Ye Matie And secondarie also by the said Bill the said Richard Chambers late Exchlie prayed that this Court would be pleased to give order that Ye Maties Attorney generall might likewise answere to the said Bill, as by the said Bill (amongst many other things therein contayned) more fullie and at large may appear. Now upon the motion of Mr Hoy on the behalfe of the said Richard Chambers in absence of Ye Maties said Attorney generall informinge this Court that the said Bill came in almost three weeks sitting, and that after diverse times given heere in Court according to the course of this Court the said Abraham Davis Richard Warmastyn Hugh Holloway and Bryan Rogers did on Twesday last put in their Answer to the said Bill but that