More for the mixedness of the value of the lewd bales of rawe silke as above mentioned according to the private sale aforesaid is the summe of	133	00	00
	1076	06	08
The entire demanded by us as aforesaid for Her Maties use for those eight bales above specified due amount to the summe of	053	16	04

Abraham Dawes Coll.
Jo: Holloway Comptr:
Ric: Carmarthen Sur:

More	297	17	02
More	012	08	08 1/2
The entire (of all these goods) demanded doth amount to the summe of	364	02	02 1/2

dated 23^tie of June 1629

	£	s	d
The weele value of all the aforesaid goods brought in and not entire payd amounts to as they be valued in the books of Rates to pay the duties	7262	04	00
The weele duties demanded for all the aboveesaid goods for ingrome impost and increase is	0364	02	02 1/2

	£	s	d
Yet is to said for the goods now remaynge in the Customehouse	297	17	02
And for the goods taken away by the said Gambore at tymes	066	05	00 1/2
Totalls	364	02	02 1/2

Martis xxiimo die Junij 1629

London

Whereas yesterday upon the motion of Mr Kuyl of Gomfell wth Richard Gambers Marchant of London and now a prisoner in the Fleete touchinge Staine goods and marchandize of good values sized and detayned from him by the officers of his Maties Customehouse for some duties by them claymed to be due to his Matie Sr Robert Heath Knight his Maties Attorney Generall being also present in Court it was ordered by the Court by the consent of the said Mr Attorney that the said Mr Gambers should have liberty to goe himselfe wth his Keeper