The Replication of Richard Chambers of London Marchant Compt. to the answere of Sr. Robert Heath Knt. his Ma.ties Attorney Generall. /

The said Compt. saith, as in his Bill he hath said, And that the same Bill is in all things true and that the goods and Chattells therein specified at the time of the taking of them were of such quantities and of such values as in the said Bill is set forth, and declared and divers of the same goods and Chattells, that is to say, one chest of blacke silke grogrous containing 10. peeces, worth 400.li. and 26. Bills of Turky Grogrous, worth 2900.li. and 3. Bales of Mohards worth 300.li. and 3. bales of Naples Organsine silke worth 900.li. and 5. bales of raw silke worth 1250.li. and 6. Bales of Chamblets worth 950.li. & 40. sacks Salts worth 360.li. amounting all to the value of 7060.li. it being now eleaven monthes since the said goods were seized, and are yet detayned and withholden from the said Compt. by the said other defendts in the Bill named or by their meanes, and by occasion of the said wrongfull taking of them by the said Compt. Confesseth, that setting the said Bill exhibited, the said defendts in the Bill named have restored to the Compt. some pte of the said goods and Chattells, that is to say, one chest of blacke silke Grogrous of tem peeces and ten Bales of Turky Grogrous and three bales of Mohards and two bales of Organsine silke