house without the assent or order of the pltt and put into the Customs house of London, and by whome was it done and by whose order.

5. Item did not the pltt sundry times demand of Abraham Dawes and the other deftt Officers of the Customs house in London all his said goods or some pte of them and did not the said Abraham Dawes and the other deftt Officers ~~for the said goods~~ or some of them detayne all the said goods after they were demanded as aforesaid and did not they or some of them refuse to deliver them to the pltt upon the pltt would pay divers summes of money, how ma money did they so demaund.

6 Item did not the pltt at sundry times offer to said Abraham Dawes and the other deftt Officers for the said goods what was due by lawe, and not the pltt desire them to pay themselves, what was due out of the said goods, and to deliver unto the pltt the rest, and did not the said Dawes and other deftt Officers refuse to doe both the one and the other And did not the pltt desire them to give him to see his said goods, and to use meanes preserve them from perishing But did not the said Dawes and other deftt Officers refuse to suffer the pltt so to doe unlesse the pltt would voluntarily pay such summes or pretended duties as they demanded for the said goods./

7. Item was not a Cask of blacke Naples silke & Grogrons, and a Ball of Orginsine silke the first pte of the said goods so seized and taken from the pltt as aforesaid, and when were the said goods so seized or taken from the pltt and by whome and at what time.

8. Item did not the pltt bring his Replevins for pte of his said goods aforesaid, and ~~did~~ not the Sheriffes Officers of London take out of Lighters at Customs house key and landpte of the pltt said goods by vertue of these Replevins or warrants and after the landing thereof did Replevine these goods and take them by the said Replevine into their possessions and power.

9 Item did not the said Abraham Dawes and other defendtt Officers of the said Customs house after the Sheriffes Officers of London had Replevined the pltt said goods in the Defendants possessions, violently and by force take away the said goods and carrie them into the Customs house.

10. Item of what worth & value were the said goods mentioned in the Second Enterr at the time they were first brought into the Port of London, to have bene their souls there severally and how longe time were all or any parte of the said goods detayned from the pltt by the said