Abraham Dawes and other Officers, and did not the pl.tt loose his first market and the Season of that yeare for the sale of the said goods by that detayne.
Item during the time of the said detayne.t and after the said seizure did not there come into the said Port of London great quantities of the like sorts of goods, in so much that the prizes from time of the first detention of the said goods fell in prize at least 12 ℔ cent one w.th the other, and what loss damage or Endamage or may the pl.tt have sustayned by the detayne or seizure of the said goods as aforesaid the the proceedings of the said Abraham Dawes and other desate Officers /

12. Item what pte of the said goods were seized and carried away by the said Sheriffs Officers of for an Export of 2000 for the Kings May and what were the said goods worth at the time they were so detayned from the pl.tt as aforesaid.

13. Item did not the said Abraham Dawes and other officers contrary to an order of the Exchequer Court of the 23 June 1629. were Edwards you detayne the said goods to end they might be seized for the Kings use and did the said Dawes and other officers, when the said Edwards was brought there the Officers that brought the the mbr goods of the Pl.tt and deliver over the goods to the disposall of the Sheriffs of London & the Officers, & did not they refuse to deliver them to the Pl.tt.

14. Item hath not the pl.tt by the said detention seizure & losse of his said goods been stopped in the Course of his Trade and been so Endmaged that he did not send any goods out of England for Turkey or any other pte beyond the Seas since the first arrivall of the said goods in this port of London to this day, and hath not the pl.tt by cause of those seizures and detayner of his said goods by those desate Officers of the Custome house been much impayred in his Credit and weakened in his estate to a very great value & how much as you verily believe And hath not the pl.tt been inforced to take up money at interest to sustaine his Credit and supply his occasions by the ruyne aforesaid.

University of Kansas
Kenneth Spencer Research Library
MS D153