gratious and merciful, and saith that God never had a seditious thought against his most sacred Ma.tie or the State. And for a full perfect and direct answeare to the said Informacon, the said defendt saith, that as to any combinacon practises attempts or endeavours and conspiracies or disloyall speeches or any other the misdemeanors in or by the said Informacon layd to his charge Examinable in this most Honorable Court, this defendt, is, as them and every of them clearely not guilty in such sort as in and by the same they are sett forth. As touchinge matters and things this defendt is and will ready to averre and prove as this Ho.ble Court shall award and most humbly prayeth that the pleasure to accept of this defendts faithfull relacon and humbly prayeth that he may be dismissed my further attendance, and he shall ever dutifully acknowledge the Justice and favor of this Honorable Court. /

Deposition

Deposition Capt vndecimo die Januar Anno Quarto Caroli Regis Angliae ad Attor General ministrat.

William Trumbull Esq one of the Clarkes of the Counsell in Ordinary aged fifty five years sworne &c 1 To the first Interr this dep.t saith that he did on the 28th day of September last past attend at the Counsell Board at Hampton Court in the County of Midd, that being the month of his ordinary attendance where the defendt Richard Chambers did likewise attend. /

2 To the second Interr this dep.t saith that the said Chambers spake before the Lords of the Counsell then sitting these words, viz, In mo part of the world where they are strucke and wrungs as in England, In Turkey they have more encouragement, wth words this dep.t the better remembreth because he then and there sett them down in a Note Booke, wch the Lords then present caused him to read openly and acknowledged to bee the words truely taken. / 3 To the third Interr this dep.t saith that the defendt Chambers did use the words in the