I Richard Chambers of London marchant, doe humbly acknowledge that whereas upon an Informacion exhibited agt me by the kings Attorney Generall I was in Easter Terme last sentenced by the hono: Court of Starre Chamber for that I in September last being convented before the Lords and others of his mate most hono: Privy Councell Board upon some speaches then used concerning the marchants of this kingdome, and his mate well and gracious usage of them, did then and there in insolent contemptuous and seditious manner falsely and maliciously say and affirme that they (meaning the marchants) are in no part of the world so strucken and wrounge as in England and that in Turkey they have more encouragement And whereas by the sentence of that hono: Court, I was adjudged amongst other punishments justly imposed upon me, to make my humble acknowledgement and submission of this great offence at this hono: Board, before I shoulde be delivered out of prison of the fleete, whereto I was then committed, as by the said decree and sentence of that Court, amongst other things it doth and may appeare. Now I the said Richard Chambers
