a plea put in to a fyne of two thousand pounds imposed upon Richard Chambers of London merchant in his mate High Court of Starrchamber and that in the mean tyme a Copie of the said plea should be delivered to the said mr Chambers to the end hee might shew the same to the said mrs Noy and mr mason, who were by an Order made on Twesday last assigned to be of his Counsell and that the said plea should bee this day read in Court And it was likwise ordered by the Consent of the said mr Attorney that in the mean tyme no Bendis upon should be awarded for sale of Certain goods and marchandizes of the said mr Chambers seized upon the said Ryde. Now upon Learning of this mate said Attorney Generall and of the said mrs Noy and mr mason for the said mr Cham It is this present day ordered by this Court the the said plea shall be read in Court upon Tu next, and upon the Court will take fur further order therein as shall fitting And wee are the said mrs Noy informed this Court that Ma Davies and John Holloway Esqrs and some of of the Officers of his mate Customs house of London had by vertue of an order of this Co

of

of the three and twentieth of June last detayned divers goods and marchandizes of the said mr Chambers amounting to farre above the double value of the duties demanded by them to belonge to his Maty in great hinder of the said mr Chambers. Mr Attorney being this day present in Court, was pleased to offer that he would write his lre to the said Officers of the Customs house to require them that they shall detayne but a moderate proportion of the said goods and marchandizes for or in lieu of the duties by them demanded for his maty as aforesaid and restore the residue to the said mr Chambers h: Chambers

B: Ryde

London.

Inter ordines de Termino Sancti Michaelis Anno quinto Regis Caroli in Curia Regis apud Westmon Ely roman (inter alia) continetur et sequitur, videlicet Martis xxj. Octobris.

Upon reading mr Chambers plea in open Court to the fyne of 2000. sett on him in the Starre Chamber This Court finding fitt to advise of it hath this day ordered that a Copie thereof shall be made and delivered to the Barons to peruse, and on Friday next they will declare their opinions

By Curia