who are the knowne and ordinary officers of the Customs Howse in the Port of London, did order that the said Sheriffe should not make any delivery of the said goode, or any pte thereof upon or by vertue of the said Writt or writte, or of any other writ of the like nature and that day fortnight was then given by the said Court to the said pties to shew Cause why an Injunccon should not bee awarded to staie the Suite upon the said Writt of Replevyn, and in the mean tyme the possession of the goode then endeavoured to bee replevyed, was stayed and guided by the said order As by the said order amongst other things it appeareth And afterwards upon Munday the xxiiii.th of Novembr last past upon the motion of ye maties said Attorney generall informing the said Court of Exchequer that one Humfry Browne marchant had lately brought the like writt of Replevyn against the said Abraham Dawes and against Allen Davie Thomas Hanford Richard Andrewes Robert Perry and John Pollinge for certaine goode supposed to bee by them detayned, who are but meere servants to ye maties in ye Customs Howse and haie noe principall or private interest into the said goode, neither did they nor make any pleame thereunto but on ye maties behalfe It was thereupon ordered by the said Court that the Sheriffe of London should not make any delivery of the of the said Humfry Browne the goode or any pte thereof untill the said Court should take further order therein And it was upon further ordered that the said Humfry Browne on the twenty seaventh daie of Novembr then next Comming and now last past should likewise shew Cause why the Injunccon should not bee awarded for staie of his Suite of the said Replevyn And in the mean tyme the delivery of the said goode was staied and the possession thereof guided for ye maties as by the said Order likewise appeareth And further upon Hearing of Mr Serjeant Bromiston Mr Serjeant Hender Mr Noy and Mr Holborne being of Counsell with the said Marchant And upon Hearing of ye maties said Attorney Generall on ye maties behalfe the said seaven and twentie daie of Novembr last past Forasmuch as it then appeared to the said Court of Exchequer that the said generall writt of Replevin had bee brought to Have delivery of the goode with the said pson therein named to bee detayned as ye maties officers and Servants of the Customs Howse had taken and detained into ye maties possession, and layd into ye maties Stood howse for duties due and paidable to ye maties and not paid for wch noe Replevyn could bee sued by lawe to take them out of ye
