mate owne possession, wch it might be if they remayned in the hands of ye mate Officers. And for that the Constant Course of that Court then was and ever had been in all Causes wch concerned ye mate Revenue upon Complaint made in that Court in that behalfe to staie all Suites brought in any other Court agt ye mate Officers for the Carrying of any Duties belonging to ye mate Revenue that Court being the ppr Court for the Hearing and determining of all things concerning ye mate Revenue therefore the said Court was clearely of opinion that the said Sheriffs writt of Replevyn was not mayntaynable by lawe nor to be allowed to take goods out of ye mate owne possession and ought not to be proceeded in, but the pties if they thought fitt take their remedye course in that Court. And therefore it was that present daie ordered by the said Court of Exchequer that an Injunction should forthwith be awarded under the Seale of that Court to staie all further proceedings upon the said Sheriffs writt of Replevyn sued forth by the said marrynate as aforesaid, and the Sheriffs of the Citie of London were thereby to take notice, that they were neither to proceede in the Execution of that writt sued forth

nor

nor of any other writt of Replevyn wch should at any time then after be sued forth for the delivery of any goods being in the Kings Warehouse wch the said Court held to be for ye mate owne Actuall possession. And if any attempt or endeavo should be made to the Contrary ye mate said Officers were ordered to acquaint the Right Hono the Lord Trer or Barons of the said Court of Exchequer therewith wch would thereupon take Such order therein as the Cause should require, as by the said last mentioned Order it likewise appeareth. According to wch order an Injunction did issue forth of the said Court of Exchequer under the Seale of the said Court directed to the said John Pollex Edward Moore, William Woodhouse Symon Wytcombe, and Humfry Browne requiring them to staie all Suites accons and Replevyns by them or any of them had or moved, or to be had or moved against the said John Woodhouse Edmd Abraham Davis Richard Carmarthen Richard Andrewes Allen Cary Thomas Halford Robert Perry and Edge Pollex for the foresaid goods in any Court of ye mate whatsoever other than the said Court of Exchequer as by the said Injunction bearing date on or about the Seaven & twentieth