Raigne of his ye Realme of England rowe unto the said Richard Philippe being then and yet one of the Under Officers of Howland Bar-house, one of the Officie of ye said Office of London, and upon sundry false Bonds to the said Richard Philippe, and for the some of ffortye Shillings given to the said Richard Philippe by the said Bartholomew Gillman and other the foresaid Confederates wherebye hee due ffee was two Shillings fowre pence or thereabouts, and for and upon promises made unto him by the said Bartholomew Gillman, and other the foresaid Confederates of the some of ten pounds more or and divers other bribes, guifte gratuities and rewards, hee the said Richard Philippe and the said other Confederates did on or about the third day of January last past give and make diver and sundry untrue and false Informations unto the Clarke of the Compter of London and did by meanes thereof enter or cause to bee entered and bayled divers plaints of Replevyn, one in the name of the said Richard Chambers, one other in the name of the said John Hollis and of one Charles ffittiplace, one other in the name of the said ~~John ffowler~~ Bartholomew Gillman and one other in the name of the said John ffowler against Jasper Dartnall a wharfinger in the Lower ward London, for the displacing of divers goods and marchandizes by them imported into the Port of London, and by them intended to bee landed at that tyme where the said Dartnall was the wharfinger, but the said Dartnall had at that tyme none of the said goods in his custody, nor had hee the said Jasper Dartnall any charge or power to take any goods into his custody wth Guilds or ought to paid unto ye ma.ties any Customes or duties but the same was done only as a colour and pretence to worke and effecte their further purpose and then the said Bartholomew Gillman John ffowler Richard Chambers and John Hollis and the said other Confederates being thus provided of a colour and pretence for executing their former intentions, being armed wth Swords daggers staves Cudgells and other weapons aforesaid invasive as defensive in a most riotous routous and unlawfull manner on or about the said third day of January last past did assemble themselves in the Rife of All Saints Working in the lower ward of London and repayred to the wharfe usually kept by the said Jasper Dartnall wherin the Ward aforesaid did did attempt to take and carrie away the goods aforesaid without paying any duties at all to ye