there from And then the said Bartholomew Gillman John Howes Richard Chambers and John Hollis said it was best to make a fire against the said Customs house Cable and burne them downe, that they the said Confederates said they hopes to see the heavie Curse of God fall upon them and theirs that were occasion of the staying of theire goods, and the said Bartholomew Gillman and the said other Confederates used also then there many other outrageous seditious and reproachfull words, concerning ye matie Customes and ye Officers and Officers of ye Customes and Customs house aforesaid In Consideration whereof And for summary Cause the said parties Combinators Confederacyes riotts route unlawfull assemblies, beatings woundings factious and seditious words and other the foresaid misdemeanors and offences are of high nature and dangerous Consequence, and if they Should stand unpunished might incourage other like ill affected people to Committ the like offences And for that the same offences are Committed and done against the wholsome lawes of this ye Kingdome and are not pardoned by a generall or special Pardon but remayne unpardoned May it therefore please ye most excellent matie to grant unto ye matie said Attorney ye matie most gracious writs of Subpna to bee directed to the said Bartholomew Gillman John Howes Richard Chambers John Hollis Richard Phillips and the said other unknowne persons when they Called disordered Commanding them and every of them at a certayne day under a certen payne therein to bee limitted personally to bee and appeare before ye matie and the Right honble the Lords and others of his matie most Honble Privy Counsell in ye high Court of Starr Chamber then and there upon their Corporall oathes to answeare the premisses and to stand to and abide such order direccon sentence and decree therein as to ye matie and the said Lords and others Shall seeme fitt And ye highness said Attorney Shall ever pray for ye maties