their Kings and Judge Lord over them And we feare it is lonlines and an insolence of an Eye natnre and offence of a dangerous Consequence for any to sent their owne seditious and malitious Enmors by contrive= =inge, disperseinge and publishinge of false infamous and libellous bookes and pampelets under colour of a presentinge unto Complaints to the Eye Court of Parliam wedreby distention may arise betweene ye Prelates Peers and other subs of this ye Realme and to bringe the reverend Bpps and Pastors of the Church into the hatred and contempt of the people, and so to subvert and confome all Ecclesiastiall govern wth in this Realme, yet so it is may, it please ye most excellent Ma tie that one Alexander Leigton sometymes minister, and now beinge or pretendinge himselfe to bee a Doctor in physick by Combination and Confederation betweene him and diverse other psons yet unknowne to ye said Attorney, yeose names were they shalbee discovered ye humblie prayde may bee inserted into this Information and they likewise made ptie hereunto, intendinge to raise slander upon the reverend Bpps of this ye Realme and the disipline of the Church of England and to drawe those reverend Bpps into the hatred and contempt of the rest of ye loyninge subs to ruine and destroye them and their sur= =vision for ever, and to introduce ptie Con= =fusion unto and upon this Church of England and to bringe dishonor upon the Crown of ye most sacred Ma tie and ye government, and to stirr up as much as in them lay ye Eye Court of Parliam there assembled to bee the Instrum th therouse sure the beginninge of ye Ma ties raigne falselie wickedlie mali= =tiouslie and seditiouslie devised framed and contrived a libellous and malitious booke entitulled amixed contayninge three hundred fortie fower pages besides one a Epistle to the Reader, and another to the Eye Court of Parliam intitulled An appeale to the Parliament or Syons Plea ga the Prelates, before wch booke the said Alexander Leigton and other the Confederates aforesaid have contrived devised and set a Preface or an Epistle to the Reader begin= =ninge thus Well affectioned Reader, and endinge thus. Woe shalbee readie at all times by gods assistance further to make it good. An wch Epistle to the Reader