onlie importinge actually violent deprive= =inge of life, but also the afflictinge or wronginge of men by indirect course, as pyninge them in prison, depriveinge them and their families of lively good, wee doe too many in this Nation have too mee woefull experience, besides the blood of sundrie innocents by the removeall of faithfull Sceppards from their flocks, quite contrarie to the mynde and sentence of the Maties late royall Father whom the Defendant cate observedlie stirred of their course course of the Hyerarchie witnes the Epistle to the Reader, also page one hundred twentie three, seaventie foure, seaventie one hundred twentie two.
And the Defendant for further explayninge of himselfe referrethe himselfe to the fifteente, nyntie seaven, eightie one hundred twentie six, one hundred twentie two, one hundred twentie three pages of the said booke, neither doth the Defendt contrave the dealinge to greive so much from the disposition of the men as from the evill of their places; for good men have proved evill Prelates.

Further weeread the Defendt is charged with naminge the Prelatie Patamirall and Antichristian, the Defendt referrethe himselfe in their stirler to the eleaventh, twelvete, thirteente, fowrteente, fifteente, sixteente, seaventeente, eightteente and nynteente pages of the said booke. And further the Defendt saithe, that the termes are not his owne, but the termes of the learned speake= =inge of divers kindes of Papists page eightie eight, eightie nyne. And weeread it is informed by a^t the Defendant that he talkethe the Hyerarchie the mayne and master frame of the land established by a lawe, page the third the Defendant answerethe as he conceiveth and weither it be a frame or not he referrethe himselfe to the said booke from the first page to the twentieth. And that it is established by a lawe the statute speaketh expresslie And weeread the Defendt sholde said that Ministers sholde have voyce a deliberative and decisive in Comsells page the seaventh the Defendt answerethe that it is the determination of Comsells