from the words of truth witnessed also by the learned as appeares in the aforesaid page And wherras this defendt is charged wth terminge the Prelates Tavens and Promaggotts page the thirtie five and answeres that by a member of learned both antient and modern they are termed as more in effect witness Mr Zanchinger page the thirteenth Mr Wickliffe page the twelfeth and tens they are termed rather from that malignitie incident in the callinge thereunto wardes to wrynge or aspersse their persons And wherras it is informed that this defendant should charge the Prelates wth suggestion of false feares to the Kinge for reviveinge that spawne of the beast, kneelinge at the sacram^t for the greater reverence thereto page the seventeenth This defendt answeres that he speaketh of the tyme of Kinge Edward the sixth, of whom the Papists desired it tumultuouslie, and to recostruct= =ment by more importunitie wth the Kinge it was granted, so that it appeareth it had the bringe from the beast, Moreover it is informed aga^t this defendt that he affirmeth the statute of primo Elizabethe doth seeme inconvenient in page the fortie two and fortie three This defendt answeres that there he onlie relateth what positions were agitated and brought to a faire a eriight as bringe in the Parliam in anno one thousand six hundred and ten of good intentions had not they miscarried. And whereas the said defendant is charged w^th derogatinge from his Maties royall power and lawes, This defendt answeres that he is so farr from that, that wth all his best endeavors he pleadeth for the stablishm^t of his Maties lawes and power royall witnesse page fortie one, one hundred twentie eight in of the said booke.

And whereas it is informed aga^t this defendt that he termeth the Canons non sinit Cannons This defendt humblie entreatth that they may be reviewed and it shall appeare that it is aga^st and reason, that for saying there is anie thinge in the booke of comon prayer repugnant to the scriptures a man shalbe excommunicated ipso facto. Canon: 4: sinod thomblues confesse that all things therein contayned are not warranted by the scriptures
