The Lords did for the space of two howres learnedlie refell all Laytons argum^ts, and from the same proofes that Layton urged aga^t our Queene, he tooke argum^ts that Spittmonslie appeared, namlie to prove for our Queene, so that cate Lord gave the Lords a thankfull testimonie of ev^ll learninge, all saynge they never rose from the table better satisfied in any point, so that cate man aswell English as Scottish, continued in giveinge Layton the greatest and sharpest punism^t that ever was given in that Court for any offence.

His Censure was first to bee degraded from his ministerie

~~Secondlie to bee degraded from his degree~~ in register, because that as yet Cardinall Sanlob already by his Grace should bee endeared to kill theire bodies by his art they fearinge the Cator from the former

Thirdlie to pay 10000 li. to the Kinge

Fourthlie to have perpetuall imprisonm^t for feare of infection

Fifthly to bee uncapt unless he could prove himselfe innocent

Sixthly to loose one eare and have one nostrill slit and to have one Cheeke branded wth the letter K: S: for a sower of sedition, in Cheapside

Sixthly to loose the other eare in the pillorie the other nostrill slit and the other Cheeke branded wth the letter K: S: for a sower of sedition, in Cheapside

Arthur Langhorne

4to Junij 6to Caroli Regis

This day came to bee heard upon the defendt^s owne Confession the matters of complaint exhibited by Information into this Court by Sr Robert Heath, knight his Maties Attorney generall plantiff aga^t Alexander Leighton doctor of physick defendt^ for framinge and contrivinge a libellous and seditious booke aga^t his Matie the Queene 23^ppes and Prelates of this Kingdome intitulede (An Appeale to the Parliament, or Syons Plea aga^t the Prelacie) and for causinge a great number of the said bookes to bee printed and publishinge and dispersinge them to and amongst divers psons upon a ptence of presentinge unto Complaints to the Comons House of Parliam^t, the substance of wch Information beinge now opened to the Court by his Maties said Attorney generall, and the Answere of the defendt put in under his owne hand beinge read, and the seditious libellous seditions and traytorous scandalls of the said booke beinge openlie read in Court It evidentlie appeared to this honoble Court that the said defendt Leighton did make and contrive the said