Countrees that he ought to appeare heere and attend in the same Parliam.t in the said Informaron mentioned accordingly, and observing that before the seaventeenth day of Marc in the said Informaron mentioned, on wch the said Parliament mentioned in the said Informaron was appointed to begin, his most excellent Ma.tie did publish his royall Proclamaron geven at the Court at Whitehall the eighteenth day of February in the said third year of his Ma.tie Raigne, wherby his Ma.tie required the Members of both the houses of the said Parliament in the said Informaron mentioned not to faile of their attendance on the said seaventeenth day of Marc in the said Informaron mentioned enforcing the same upon great and waightie reasons by the same Proclamaron wherunto Eyre defendt referreth himselfe may appeare, he Eyre defendt being Elleson at aforesaid a Citizen for the said Citie of Bath was the more carefull to attend at or neare the beginning of the said Parliam.t accordingly, and the this def-bring as the Sheriffe of the said County of Wilton to make returne of his Ma.tie writt of Summons of the said Parliament directed to him and of the Indentures of the elecons of the knights of the Shire of the said Countie of Wilton and of the Citizens of Citties and Burgesses of Boroughes of the same Countie and taking Eyre personall attendance to serve upon at the same Parliament not only lawfull and nec-essarie of his said oath but also very requisitt Eyre Eyre defendt did repaire to the Citties of Westm.r where the said Parliament was to be held and charged his said Retornes to be accordingly made and after did take the oathes appointed to be taken by the members of the said house of Commons before they sett in the same house of Commons as a member thereof as the rewardeth his duties to Eyre most excellent Ma.tie and the service for wch he was so Elleson required him And as the Jurie the for any thing he then did or yet doth know to the contrary was lawfull for him to doe the rather for that as the rewardeth his ma.tie writt of Summons directed to the Sheriffe of the said Countie of Sussex mentioned in the said Informaron, and the defendt said Eyre to serve as a Citizen for the said Citie of Bath in that Countie and the due returne thereof by the said Sheriffe of the Countie of Sussex mentioned and sett forth by the said Informaron, and also the Act of Parliament made in the first yeare of the Raigne of the late King Henrie the Eight mentioned and sett